

CHAMPAGNE

"I drink it when I'm happy and when I'm sad. Sometimes I drink it when I'm alone. When I have company, I consider it obligatory. I trifle with it if I'm hungry and drink it when I am. Otherwise I never touch it - unless I'm thirsty." -Madame Lily Bollinger, 1961

		PER GLASS	PER BOTTLE
101	Ayala Brut Majeur 750ml An attractive and aromatic champagne with a fruity freshness, Ayla can be served at any time of day and is suitable for every occasion. - 43 Chateau Cissac, Cru Bourgeois Haut-Médoc, 2007 France, Magnum 97.00
 Text book Medoc with plenty of juicy, chunky blackcurrant firm tannins and fine length. Cissac's new style has a good balance and is no longer overwhelmed by the tannin levels of the pre-2000 vintages. A superb medium bodied wine: "One of the best Cru Bourgeois in the middle part of the Medoc." Robert Parker.
- 44 Chateau de Breuil, Haut-Médoc, 1998 France 97.00
 Established in the 6th century, Baronnie du Breuil is the oldest vineyard in the Medoc. A great example of a good value claret. A beautifully dense nose of blackcurrant fruit and a concentrated chocolate palate, with the optimum weight of tannin and rewarding Bordeaux earthiness. A sleek and well-crafted red that represents great value.
- 45 Chateau Cantemerle, Grand Cru, Haut-Médoc 2005 France 95.00
 A superbly brilliant, deeply pronounced red colour typical of great vintage. Its aromas are still a bit reserved, but crisp, silky tannins give the palate an elegance and smoothness characteristic of Cantemerle's terroir. The finish displays opulent aromas, a very delicate structure and great freshness.
- 60 Chateau Grand-Puy-La Coste, Pauillac, 2007 France 85.00
 Established in the 17th century, the vineyard's 40 hectare is based on sandy Garonne gravel bordering the estates on Mouton, Pontet Canet and Lafite. Not surprisingly, this is very polished Claret. The blend is usually approximately 60 % Cabernet Sauvignon & 40 % Merlot. Deeply coloured with flavours of intense cassis with mild spice & herbs with an underlying mocca coated and powerful structure and length.
- 75 Chateau Puy Blanquet, Saint-Emilion, 2007 France 49.50
 Elegantly plump Saint-Emilion from this accessible vintage, offering aromas of plums and tobacco, a supple yet structured palate, and a delightful minerality on the finish.
- 61 Chateau Latour a Pomerol, Bordeaux, 2005/08 France 135.00
 "In textural terms, it often reminds me of Petrus: "So supple and silky its cashmere tannins belie its unerring proclivity to age." Neal Martin, Pomerol book, 2013.
