

CHAMPAGNE

"I drink it when I'm happy and when I'm sad. Sometimes I drink it when I'm alone. When I have company, I consider it obligatory. I trifle with it if I'm hungry and drink it when I am. Otherwise I never touch it - unless I'm thirsty." -Madame Lily Bollinger, 1961

		PER GLASS	PER BOTTLE
101	Ayala Brut Majeur 750ml An attractive and aromatic champagne with a fruity freshness, Ayala can be served at any time of day and is suitable for every occasion. 44	Chateau de Breuil, Haut-Médoc, 2000 France Established in the 6th century, Baronnie du Breuil is the oldest vineyard in the Medoc. A great example of a good value claret. A beautifully dense nose of blackcurrant fruit and a concentrated chocolate palate, with the optimum weight of tannin and rewarding Bordeaux earthiness. A sleek and well-crafted red that represents great value.	97.00
45	Chateau Cantemerle, Grand Cru, Haut-Médoc 2005 France A superbly brilliant, deeply pronounced red colour typical of great vintage. Its aromas are still a bit reserved, but crisp, silky tannins give the palate an elegance and smoothness characteristic of Cantemerle's terroir. The finish displays opulent aromas, a very delicate structure and great freshness.	105.00
60	Chateau Grand-Puy-La Coste, Pauillac, 2012 France Established in the 17th century, the vineyard's 40 hectare is based on sandy Garonne gravel bordering the estates on Mouton, Pontet Canet and Lafite. Not surprisingly, this is very polished Claret. The blend is usually approximately 60 % Cabernet Sauvignon & 40 % Merlot. Deeply coloured with flavours of intense cassis with mild spice & herbs with an underlying mocha coated and powerful structure and length.	129.00
75	Chateau Puy Blanquet, Saint-Emilion, 2007 France Elegantly plump Saint-Emilion from this accessible vintage, offering aromas of plums and tobacco, a supple yet structured palate, and a delightful minerality on the finish.	49.50
